Chief Justice of India. Government is implementing a scheme for computerization of District and Subordinate Courts which includes upgradation of the Information and Communication Technology infrastructure of the Superior Courts. Fast Track Courts have been set up for speedy disposal of long pending Sessions cases and the cases involving undertrials in jails. Alternative modes of disposal including mediation, negotiation and arbitration have been encouraged. Some legislative measures have also been introduced for improvement in judicial procedure and for expediting disposal of civil and criminal cases in courts.
